1. Who can hear My voice? Who can hear My voice and respond to Me this day? Who can hear My voice and respond? Who can hear My voice and even know it is My voice and know I am speaking, and know I am calling out to them—calling out to every single person who will but hear Me, take knowledge of Me, come to Me, know Me, come to Me intimately, and let Me make Myself known intimately with the delicacies of truth, the delicacies of beauty that transcend everything they have ever seen and known about.

2. Who knows My voice today? Who wants to know My voice? My voice calls, My voice has called for years and years, for time, time immemorial. I have called, I have called out to My creation. I have called and said "Come, let us walk, let us speak, let us talk, let us exchange, let us touch each other, let us know each other, let us reveal kindness, gentleness, tenderness and love to each other."

3. I have desired to share the revelation of My creation with My creation—revelation of the heavens, how I did all things, how I orchestrated these things, how I orchestrated the beauty of the heavens and the order they operate in. Think that I desire to hide those mysteries or keep them mysteries? Think that I do not desire to share?

4. I call constantly. I call constantly. I call and I come and I confirm, but so many are not interested in My calling or My coming or My confirming, or My confirmation of them or My voice or what I have revealed to them, or what I could be revealing to them, what I can be revealing to them and what I can be doing with them in My big world. But for many, that will change and that will change posthaste, forthwith, immediately, for I am doing a new thing.

5. The trumpets are sounding. The heralds are speaking. The truth is being poured forth and you, My son, will I use in the sounding of My trumpet, the pouring forth of My love, My call, My coming, My confirming, My revelation bringing forth stanchions, buttresses, foundation stones of new oil and wine—new understandings of truth-permanent to be built on, manifesting Me.

6. I love you and I love those that will hear My voice, those who will hear My voice today. I love you.

7. You who think you don't know My voice, please come to Me. Talk to Me. Speak to Me, speak with Me, ask Me about My voice and expect to hear My voice, expect to hear My voice in your mind, expect to hear My voice in your spirit. Expect something of Me to come to you and reveal something of Me that you have not known before.

8. Look for Me in little ways. Look for Me in little thoughts, not for neon lights. Look for Me in a still, small voice. Listen for Me. Look at Me, look at Me so you can hear Me better. Look into My face. Take time with Me. Touch Me. Touch My Word and allow My Words to come through you. Allow My words to come into you so they can come through you and you can write them and you can speak them, and you can stand up just like My penman who is now speaking My words, is speaking My words, and you can be speaking My words and you will speak My words just like this, if you so choose.

9. Am I a respecter of persons? I choose those who choose Me. Look back at the words I have given over and over for months and months, speaking about My values, My ways, My systems of orientation, imaging, thinking and revealing Myself, planning, planning, revealing, touching, confidencing so that I can significance My people.

10. And if you want to know My voice, you can know My voice. You can know My voice so clearly. And for all the things that are coming on the earth, you MUST know My voice. How else will you stand if you know not My voice?

11. Did I not make My creation for a relationship? Did I make My creation only to read a book, only to read My Word, but not know My voice? No, I said "My sheep know My voice" and My sheep must know My voice and every laborer in My vineyard must know My voice. Every child, every child, every toddler from the youngest to the oldest person must know My voice.

12. Seek to know Me. Seek to know Me. Seek Me. Seek to know Me while I may be found so easily. I rise, I raise and I am rising and I am raising you who want to know Me. You who want to know Me in intimacy—you will—you who will flirt not with mammon and the things which destroy My design; delay, divert, controvert. But I have made the path so clear to you.

13. The way is so wide. The way is so wide right now, the path is clear. My light shines brighter and brighter. Every noonday, every morning My mercies are new every day and I come. I call. And I will confirm My voice to the seeking of Me, to the seekers of Me, to the seekers who come and sit at My feet.

14. Time. Time. Will you give Me time? Will you give Me time to speak? Rush off not here and there and giving Me the dregs of your day and then thinking you are doing Me a favor—spare Me. Forsake Me not, forsake Me not for industriousness.

15. Forsake Me not for diligence in other areas, but develop industriousness and diligence to come to Me, in Me, so that I can come in you—posthaste, forthwith, and release My design fully in your life while you have time to act, while you have time to revel in the revealings of Myself to you.

16. I love you and I give you praise if you will praise Me. I give you revelation if you will seek Me. I call and I confirm My voice every day, every night, every hour, every moment to those who will come and tenaciously dig, pursue Me passionately, digging into Me, My Word, My words, My revelation, and have the guts to acknowledge Me. Fear not men, fear not religious systems—doctrines which constrict, belabor, force toil on. I am liberty and I am freedom and I come this day in joy, laughter, liberty and freedom.

17. I don't come on a donkey today, I come on the wings of My Spirit, and I come into your heart and every heart that will open to Me, and I will confirm My voice and I will confirm My revelation and you will grow and I will teach. I will teach. I will correct. I will direct. I will connect and I will destroy what the past has done to you and My people that have operated, at times in ignorance, and at times in simple apathy.

18. But I am Me and I am arising. I am gathering My forces. I am mounting My hearts, I am mounting My steed, and I am stallionizing My body. Will you be one? Will you be one?

19. Will you be one of My stallions? My call goes forth today. I call you into My army. I call you into the army of free men, free women, free people of every label—Free I call you. I call you now. Arise. Arise. Fear not. Fear not any thing, any force, any person or institution, dogmas or doctrine. Dogmas or doctrine, fear them not.

20. I come and I call and I confirm. Rise to Me, with Me, and let Me arise you this day into that for which you were born and I will joy and you will joy in great laughter and freedom and friendships will come forth in My big world.

21. Seek Me while I may be found so easily and enjoy this time, enjoy this time, enjoy this year, enjoy this process.

22. Enjoy who I bring into your life and enjoy those who I take out so that I can perfect that which is of Me.

23. Trust Me more. I Am that I Am and I call and I confirm and I call you now to confirm you later, but to confirm My voice in you now in the process, in Me, in time in Me. You will see and you will enjoy and I thank you. I thank you. I bless you and I thank you.
